

Town of Lincoln Human Resources Director

The Town of Lincoln is accepting applications for a Human Resources Director. Position requires a Bachelor's Degree and five to seven (5-7) years of experience in the Personnel field. Professional certification from a national personnel management organization is preferred. The Human Resource office is responsible for the development and administration of town-wide human services, including labor relations, employee health benefits, recruitment and training and the classification and compensation of positions, as well as, the provision of personnel benefits and risk management. Applications are available on the Town website at www.lincolnri.org or at Lincoln Town Hall and must be submitted to the Director of Human Resources, Town of Lincoln, 100 Old River Road, Lincoln, RI 02865 by May 18, 2021.